PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN,

Plaintiff-Appellee,

v

BOBBY E. CARD,

Defendant-Appellant.

UNPUBLISHED

No. 205422

Recorder's Court

LC No. 96-006785

Before: Zahra, P.J., and Saad and Collins, JJ.

MEMORANDUM.

Following a jury trial, defendant was convicted of carjacking, MCL 750.529a; MSA 28.797(a), and assault with intent to rob while armed, MCL 750.89; MSA 28.284. He was sentenced to two concurrent terms of five to fifteen years' imprisonment. He appeals as of right. We affirm.

Defendant contends that the admission into evidence of a knife, which was found on his person at the time of his arrest, denied him a fair trial. Because defendant did not object to the admission of the knife at trial, appellate review of this issue is waived absent manifest injustice. People v Turner, 213 Mich App 558, 583; 540 NW2d 728 (1995). In view of the victim's testimony identifying defendant as her assailant and describing the use of a dark-bladed knife during the offense, we conclude that manifest injustice has not been demonstrated. See People v Howard, 391 Mich 597; 218 NW2d 20 (1974).

Affirmed.
